For those who do not know me, I am Terra Cruse ( Herchels granddaughter). I spent most of my childhood spending the night with Aunt Jane and her children. I can remember her voice and how she laughed. I know she is in peace now with the Lord. I will miss her!

I have many memories of my Aunt Jane, growing up and having Sunday dinners and all of us visiting for the day. I guess what I have most of her is her name and I hope I wear it well. You will be missed and I know I will see you again one day. Love your niece Jane. To my cousins I love you and I am so sorry for your loss.
