Thinking back and remembering her smile and laugh. Virginia remembers all the Flea Markets they went to. Great Lady.

I Had the privilege to meet Faye at Arbor House Assisted Living in Norman, OK. We quickly became friends and both loved Boston Terrier dogs. I would bring my dog to see Faye and we would share memories and stories of her, "Max". Faye loved to paint and draw and we spent numerous hours talking and playing bingo. If there was one thing that stood out in our conversations, it would be... "She loved her Family". Her children and grandchildren were a daily topic. She was very proud of you guys. I loved her humor, compassion, and artistic ability. Heaven has another Angel...I will miss you Miss Faye Johnston. Sincerely, Lisa Watkins
