I've only known BB since 1997 but I considered him an extremely good dear friend. We worked together for about three or four years at our store in Tulsa, OK. He had the biggest heart of any man I knew he was always kind, generous and truly, a man of integrity. My condolences go to you boys, Scott and Josh. You were everything to your dad especially after your mom died. Take solice in knowing how well thought of your dad was throughout the trucking industry and what an amazing role model he was as a man. My best regards, Rusty Fleming

I was one of BB's many friends and family in the trucking business. I will always remember BB for his honesty in all of our dealings of which there were many. The most trucks I ever purchased at one time in my life (other than at an auction) were from BB when he was UTM at OKC KW. It took days and screwed up my entire trip but I did BB a favor. I believe it was 28 trucks that he needed to sell to get corporate off his back. I bought them all. I made a great purchase. He was happy and I was happy. But he and I had other great buying and selling transactions when he was at OKC KW and also at Dallas FRTL when he was there. He was one of a dying breed. He could be trusted at his word. Not only was a deal in writing not necessary but a handshake was not even required. A great and honorable man.
