I loved Major Hill. I worked with her in Fayetteville, Arkansas and she was so spunky and funny and just always had a smile and an infectious laugh. May she rest in peace and know that she is getting her reward in Heaven.

I know that Heaven is rejoicing with Major Hill there now. She was so precious to the Enid Corps like our family! We will miss her bird whistles and her joyous spirit-So glad that she was a big part of our lives over the years. She will be missed but, we will see here again someday soon!

Major Hill will be sorely missed by those who crossed her path. I certainly will miss hearing her say to me upon greeting. "Oh, here come trouble," always in good spirits, and kept those around her lifted up. I certainly will miss her chirping like a bird and singing on the porch at the SA camp in Tahlequah. Major was such an asset for the seniors at Citadel. Now that she has been promoted to heaven; she is singing with the angels around the throne.
