Roy Richard Haley

DEC 10, 1949 - JAN 17, 2014

Roy Richard “Dick” Haley, 64, passed away January 17, 2014 at home with his family. Roy was born on December 10, 1949 to Harold and Dorothy Haley. He was a United States Army Veteran that served in the Vietnam War. Those who knew Roy remember that he had worked at almost every different profession there was, but the thing he loved most was to be with his family and friends. Roy is remembered as a generous and hard-working man who would never hesitate to help those around him even if it was just by making them smile. He is survived by his wife of 30 years, Diana, and his five children, Trina and husband, Ricky, Marie, Victoria, and Jonathan. He is also survived by three grandchildren. A memorial service will be held on Monday, January 20, 2014 at 10:00am at Freedom Church in Owasso.

I loved hearing Dick joke about what was for lunch every time I saw him. He had a sense of humor that was simple and heartwarming. I couldn't help but smile talking to him. If you knew Dick, you were very blessed. I'm going to miss him.
