Donnie Ray Jackson Jr.

SEP 27, 1963 - JAN 14, 2014

Donnie Ray Jackson Jr, age 50, was born on September 27, 1963 in Ft. Worth, Texas to his parents Don and Sue Tate Jackson. Donnie received his general education at Union High School and went on to attend for a portion of time at Oklahoma State University. He lived in Coweta with his significant other, Christine O'Brien. Donnie was involved in several organizations such as Coweta Special Athletes, Disabled American Veterans and numerous other community activities. Donnie loved hunting, fishing, and shooting the breeze with the locals. While he loved these things, the most important thing to Donnie was hearing the news that he was going to be a "Captain" to his future grandchildren. Donnie is survived by his spouse, Christine O'Brien, his son, Andrew and spouse Crystal Jackson, his son, Alex and spouse Jessica Jackson, his daughter, Aleisha and spouse Jordan Wickersham, his mother, Sue Tate Jackson, his brother, Mark and spouse Jennifer Jackson, his sister, Julie and spouse Mike Landsberger, and many more family members. A Memorial Service is being held for Donnie Jackson on Friday, January 17, 2014 at 4:00 pm at Coweta Assembly of God.

Please accept my deep sympathy for your loss. The Bible gives much comfort when we read the promise in John 5:28,29 of a resurrection. Then will be fulfilled revelation 21:3,4 where it promises there will no longer be pain, sorrow or even death. Then the earth will be the way God purposed it from the beginning. Isaiah 33:24, psalm 37:29. Until that time may you be encouraged during such a sadness.

Donnie is my soul mate. I love him so much. He has given me the best days of my life & I don't know how I will live without him now. I can hear him now telling me to quit gaying it up. My life was never the same after I met him & will never be the same now that I've lost him. I love you my Dear & I can't wait til I am in your arms again. Christine O'Brien Jackson
