So many memories of the best person the Lord led in my life. He would do anything for me and we so enjoyed just hanging out, and could be at my house in 5 min. I miss him so much, One of the last things he did was fix my squeek on my car just hours before his stroke, He and Bobby Lee and I were unseperable. I helped him around his house as he did mine. I had even alread bought his birthday present. Enjoyed giving him sweets, because he loved sweets. I have so many good pics of Sherman I miss ya my friend and the lord took the best man far too soon. love ya Debbie Barrett

It broke my heart to learn of Shermans passing. I met him over 6 yrs ago and he has been a great friend. He has always been able to make me smile when I was sad. He was always there for me when I needed him. I can honestly say, he would say I had been there for him a time or two as well. I will miss this wonderful man, he made me a better person and I will love him until eternity. I know we will dance again one day my sweet Sherman. XO Marta

Saddened to learn of Shermans passing, he truly was remarkable in so many different ways. How wonderful he leaves a legacy of kindness, patience, caring, and hard work. His work ethic will always remain one of my best memories of him. Always willing to help others and work through problems without complaint. A man of many colors, many coats and hats. So privileged to know and work with him. Salute to his service in Vietnam. You are officially home now, so rest in peace, sleep well, and keep on dancin'. May God's lovingkindness bring comfort, joy and peace to family and friends.
