Casper W Page

JAN 14, 1937 - SEP 27, 2013

Casper Page was born on January 14, 1937 in Honea Path, South Carolina to his parents Casper Page and Nina Barrett. He attended his general schooling at Due West, South Carolina. After his graduation, he began his career as a driver for several different companies including Greyhound Buses, and Pepsi Co., but he also worked with roofing and sheet metal. Casper served in the Air force as a Basic Airman which led to his attaining of certificates that allowed him to go Truck Driving. Casper married Jane Page on October 20, 1962 and made their home in Glenpool, Oklahoma. He was a proud member of Freedom Life Church of God. Casper cherished his family and fishing trips with Leon Culver. He will be missed greatly by his family and his close friends, Leon, JR, Al, and Danny. Casper was preceded by two of his brothers, Patrick Cooley and Rueben Page. Casper is survived by his wife, Jane Page, son, Ray Page, daughter, Linda Wright, son –in –law, Eddie Wright, daughter-in-law, Tasha Bacon, granddaughters, Kailin Wright and Amanda Flynn, grandsons, Joshua Wright and Allen Flynn, and his brothers, Parker Page and Paul Page.

A lot of memories with Jane and Cass. He was good to my kids, Amanda and Allen and included Andrew. He was a good man. That last really good conversation with him at some function for one of the kids, he told me "you did good kid" meant so much to me. And we went right back to smart talking each other, but we knew it was all in fun. I'm glad he got to spend time with Sophia. My thoughts are with you during this time and times to come. With love and prayers... the Flynn's

So many memories, over the 36 years of friendship,. Vacations,camping and fishing birthday parties Christmas Eve parties,and a lot if going out to eat!!!! Watching our children grow up and give us grandchildren ,that we could brag about . But the Best memory is all the laughter and love our families have shared together Leon and I will miss our Best Friend
