Michael Troy Swatosh

APR 16, 1988 - SEP 1, 2013

On the morning of Sept 1st, 2013 our beloved brother, son, and father was called home. Michael (Miguel "Juan") Swatosh was a dedicated man, full of life and happiness, and made his girls his number one priority. Miguel will always be remembered for his big bright smile that always seemed to light up any room he walked into and he's even bigger heart for his love of people. He was always there for those in need. He is survived by his mother Michele and step-father Jose Lara, his siblings: Robert and wife Melissa, Eric and wife Regina, Anthony, Ashley, Samuel "Arnold", and Cody "Fernando", his daughters Myla Mae, Eva Grace and their mother, Mykelynn Vasquez as well as many nieces and nephews, and family and friends from Texas to Oklahoma and as far as California. He rose on April 16th, 1988 and went home to our father on September 1st, 2013. It hurts to say goodbye But I know we will see each other again Heaven has received their Angel But we lost a Brother, Son, Father, and friend My tears form puddles as they drop constantly off of my face You don't know how many times I've asked God to let me take your place He answered on that yet, but I feel I'll see you soon I know your our guardian angel now, our guiding light, out of this cold dark tomb I wish I had the perfect words that would bring you back home You have received you wings canalito, and there is no telling how far you have flown I know I cant change the past and that's why it hurts so, so much That we can no longer hear your laugh and even feel a fraction of your touch Looking at Eva She's a splitting image of you Your smile, frowns, funny faces, and all the crazy things that you do We know your loved the life style but your place just wasn't the streets Now I set here with regret and confusion while asking Him to let you Rest in Peace They say "Time heals all wounds" and "Prayers" take away the pain But am I a bad person for wanting the cowards family to feel the same No matter the All Mighty(s) plan, it will never bring you back I know I've got to be strong carnal and help the familia stay strong and on track Rest In Peace Lil Brother keep us
