I had the great pleasure of being her second Daughters' good friend through Jr. and High School. I spent many days and nights at Theresa's home and feel I'm a better person to have grown up with her! She was funny and loved to laughed, (mainly at her self)! She have a great love for her Pet's and treated them, as well as her Children! Many years ago, and after the family moved to OK, I haven't had the opportunity to see her, but I carry her in my heart, and I will for my lifetime! She is now in God's arms, and will be missed everyday! Love, Tish Snelling Rohr
