She leaves behind her sons, Mike and Mark Zabienski, and daughters, Jacci (Joe) Harris and Danni (Keith) Kizer. Billie had a full life giving and caring for others in organizations such as Salvation Army, Sertoma, SHARP, and as a member at First Lutheran Church. Billie never wanted to stop; she was always on the go even continuing to work at the age of 82. She will always be remembered by her sweet smile and contagiously happy spirit. Happy birthday, Miss Billie! I love you and miss you still so terribly, and I resent that awful cancer for taking my best work friend away from me. The day you died, we lost an angel and Heaven gained one. You are truly one of the most caring, compassionate, beautiful (inside and out) people I've ever had the honor of calling my friend. I know you're in a much better place than we are, and I know you're at peace now, and as for that, I couldn't be happier for you. It's been over a year since you left us, and there are still times that I think about you and smile but cry as well. I love you, and I can't stand the fact that I can't pick up the phone and call you anymore, or you call me. I was doing some cleaning up the other day, and I ran across a couple things from you. A tear trickled down my cheek as I read them. You are proof that angels do exist. I know you're happy, and I know you're in no more pain. I love that, I just miss you so much. I will be out there later today so see you and bring you a birthday present. You know I wouldn't miss your birthday! I love you Billie. Happy birthday, and I'll see you in a little bit. I love you XOXOTammie

Billie was my closest friend at work. There seemed to be a special bond between us. She was like another mother to me, and I miss her terribly. She was always on the go; I told her I didn't know how she had the energy she had. I know she's in no more pain now, and that she's resting like she so deserves to be, but I miss seeing her beautiful face and hearing her infectious laugh. We were so close, I felt like we were family. Happy birthday Miss Billie – I will see you today. I know you're watching over us all now, and probably asking what all the fuss is about. You are truly a remarkable lady, and we are all better for having known you and loved you. You rest now, and don't forget how much we all love you!
