From him beating me at ping-pong (& he won more than he lost against all comers) to watching future & former major leaguers at the old Oilers Ballpark in the late 50s & TU football games at Skelly when it seated 22,000 & TU & Phillip 66er basketball at the pavilion Fred was a delightful friend, but to get to my wedding as he was already in the midst of singing "The Lord's Prayer" may have been the highlight of our 58 year friendship. Gona miss him being with us left here, but a little envious of him being at "home" with others we have seen go before us. To the family, I extend my deepest sympathy and will continue to pray for you.
