My heart is so heavy..... We lost a dear sister...we didn't get to spend a lot of time together in our lives but we shared some really good times and sad times together and those memories will be with me forever. My heart aches for her children, grandchildren and all her family and friends..... Know that I love all of you and wish I could be there with you through this time. My thought and prayers are with all of you....love you, Karla Hicks Johnson
