Jon Robert Roethe

NOV 19, 1953 - JAN 8, 2013

Jon was a smart, kind, and loving man who had very strong morals and values. He constantly was teaching his kids to be strong and do the right thing, while doing his best to lead by example. He always was the person that was willing to lend a helping hand. When he had a stroke in 2006, he lost that ability and that was extremely difficult for him. Yet he still persevered. If someone needed help, he would crawl to them if he wasn't walking well. Jon's ultimate goal was the protection of his family. He would do anything or find ways to ensure his family was safe and secure. Jon's step-son who he raised and loved with all his heart, unfortunately preceded him in death. His daughter Jade, now 23 was his pride and joy. She was the light of Jon's life and gave him purpose and drive. He will be greatly missed. We love you!
