It ivery unfortunatat I never got to get to know you. I have heard many stories about you and I'm told i met you once when i was very young but i don't remember. I how you lived a fulfilling life and were able to do all the things you always dreamed of. Hoping you are resting in peace. My thoughts, love and prayers go out to our family and the friends who all mourn in this loss. See you on the other side uncle Larry. Watch over us all. With love, your niece, Amanda

Well Larry I hope you have found what you were searching for. You had been searching all your life for it so I hope in your later years you had it to cherish. Your dad and I are glad we came out there in OK to live by you but then things for you disappeared and so did you. Sorry we had to find you here but maybe you will rest in peace. Love you.
