Anytime I hear a good song all I can think about and picture is aunt Jenny and how silly and crazy of a person she was and how she would do her silly dance moves. And her beautiful, bright smile she always had a smile that could brighten any bad day. I'm going to miss her here on earth but I know she is in a better place and I can't wait for the day I get to see her again. I will always remember you ain't Jenny. I love you.

I miss you so much Aunt Jenny but i know i will see you again some day, you r looking down and smiling on all of us! I got a little upset and my 6 year old Cole said "mommy dont be sad you'll see her again someday in heaven" and my daughter Anella who is only 3 says "mommy don't cry, aunt Jenny isn't sick anymore". I love how in some of the saddest times in your life the littles ones show you the way! Im sad to see you go but i know you are in great hands! Im gonna miss camping and hanging out, laughing and having fun together. you are an Angel now and i can't wait to see your beautiful wings! Your missed more than you'll ever know! WWJD love you always Angela

Jenny, you always made me feel like family when I was around you. I will miss your incredible and happy spirit and your infectious smile. If there ever was a person who didn't have fun when you were around, then it was definitely their own fault. Through all the pictures I saw of your life, it was evident that what I loved about you during the almost 10 years I knew was there throughout your entire life. I will miss being able to be around you the few times a year I got the chance. Camping on Memorial Day will never quite be the same again. Love you Jenny

To My Best Friend in the Whole Wide World. Jenny Jones You have always been my Friend and my Sister since the very first moment we meant. I could not even imagine what or who I would have been if you hadn't become my Friend and Sister The fun moments and even the sad or mad moments we've had would take a hundred pages to write, but ever one is a memory in my heart that will never be forgotten. Ashley said it best to me the other day, that they aren't very many memories that she has that didn't include Jenny, Allen and Amber. We have been a family completed by you and your fun, happy, love. No one in the world could ever make this family and me smile more than you. You were alive and filled the world with life just by being you. I miss you and will Love you forever

Beautiful Jenny, when I transferred to Pryor's Walmart she greeted me and helped me become a part of that store. She had the most wonderful smile. That smile is how I see her. May God bless her family. She will be missed.
