Joyce was a high school classmate & came to my slumber parties. I have many happy memories of out time together. We really missed her at our high school reunion on August 4th. Joyce was unable to attend, but classmates and I decided to meet for lunch as soon as she felt better. Throughout her illness Joyce was always positive. I really admire her attitude and courage. I last spoke with her last Friday shortly after she entered the hospital. She told me she thought she would be able to go home on Monday. I was saddened to learn that she had not improved on Monday. As I think of Joyce I will remember her smile, courage and positive outlook on life. What a wonderful friend. We will all miss Joyce. I'll keep your family in my prayers. Sincerely Retha O'Neal Hund
