I will miss this amazing lady and beloved aunt. I'll never forget the time Bart and I were driving from houston to new mexico and stopped in pecos to see her, completely out of the blue. She was so happy to see us and so gracious and CHARMING!!! She was always one of the most interesting people to talk to, an excellent story teller and beautiful soul. I know she's in a wonderful place now but we'll all miss her, she was blessing. Faith, hope and love always, Sandy, Bart and Dylan

Sandy! I am Michael Zargarov. We knew each other in Houston... through the Baha'is. Hope to reconnect. Zhoumichael@yahoo.com

My dearest cousins, I remember a trip Aunt Ofelia and I took with my mom to San Antonio. Mom and I had gone to visit her and we invited her to come back to San Antonio with us for a visit. We had a great time on the road. She made us laugh all the way. The drive from Pecos to San Antonio is a long one, but it seemed short because it was so enjoyable. In San Antonio we spent time visiting with family and seeing the sights like the Hemisphere Tower and Sunken Gardens. She even took in a Carousel ride in Brackenridge Park with her great niece Becca. We went over to Alex's house and had a BBQ. It was such a joyful time. I am grateful for these memories. She was a sweet lady. I will miss her. Love, Vicky, Armagan, Konnor & Katiana Kartaltepe
