Dear family, You are in my prayers as you mourn the passing of Lois. Hershel was one of the first people I met when I moved to Broken Arrow in 1971, and shortly afterward I met Lois and had the pleasure of helping her attain her GED. Hershel and Lois were always kind, genial people; visiting with them was always a pleasure. I know they are together now in heaven, and I hope that knowledge helps you cope with their absence here. Julie (the one Hicks grandchild I had the opportunity to teach), I hope all is well with you—I know you loved your grandma dearly, and this has to be a hard time. Blessings on all of you. Linn Ball
