Dear Debbie, Aunt Imogene, and family, We know that this is hard time for all of you and we are sad too. Dennis was a wonderful Son, Dad, Husband, Sailor, Nephew and Cousin to all of us. He was also a great friend as well. It was too soon for him to join his Dad and the Heavenly Father, but we are sure he is in a wonderful place. Wish we had been able to travel there and be with you all, but Betty doesn't travel at all now and both of us have not been feeling great for over a week. There should be a white flower arraignment in a basket from us, please take it home with our love for all of you and Dennis. The McAlester family, Gary, Bess, and Aunt Betty

I was so shocked to log on to FB and find that Dennis had passed. I did not ever have the pleasure of meeting him in person, but thanks to the positive aspects of technology, I got to know him online. I will miss you Dennis. You made a difference in my life! Dennis was a patriot of the highest order!
