What a beautiful service today. Of course, it was music from Elvis. That reminded me of how much Peggy loved Elvis. Peggy is loved by so many friends and family. It was great hearing stories about her and how she treated people. I always enjoyed Peggy's company down at the grille and got to experience a little taste of what it was like to waitress. I got to help out a little when Linda and I would go down on Sunday's or Saturdays. This gave me a whole appreciation for EVERYONE that is a server! Very hard job indeed! Peggy left her mark on Tulsa, her friends, and family. We will see her again. My prayer is for healing for the family. This is a time where everyone should unite, forgive, and love one another. I believe that Peggy believes that too. Peggy truly has been a blessing. Thank you God for letting her touch my life. Love, Mary Stone-Scott
