Whenever I would see my mother's two younger brothers, Jay and Lee, it was like seeing the brother that I never had. Even if I had not seen them for five, ten, or even fifteen years, it would seem like only yesterday. I always remember them as being full of fun and wise counsel, even in the darkest of times. I will miss Jay.

Dear Polly & Family, We are sending our condolences for the passing of a very wonderful man. Jay was a good friend. We enjoyed his visits and the trips we took with you and Jay through the years. It was fun to go on backroad trips to view beautiful sights and places. Enjoy the comforts of all the wonderful memories Jay has left you with. We will always have you in our thoughts and pray in the days to follow. May peace be with you at this and all times. Love, Claudette & Joe

A friend to many has gone from this earthly life to a life eternal in God's presence. We miss Jay now, "but then face to face" he'll greet us when our time has come.
