I loved my Uncle Leon with my whole heart,and so did my Mama his sister,He would come to visit my mama every month him and his Brother Uncle Hershel,Uncle Leon was a hoot ta listen to, and he had some good growing up stories,but most of all He would talk to me about loving the Lord and Giving his life totally to Jesus and was ready to meet the Lord,That was the best thing. He would call me weekly and we talked about the Lord....He was one of a kind,I will miss his calls and laughter,for he would talk of his love for the Lord as well as how he Loved being a little secretive. Uncle Leon I know you can't here me,But I loved you so very very much and I know you loved me!So I know your having a great time in Heaven,and I will say this last thing,I will miss you,but look for me for I will be there too!.....Wanda

So many precious memories.... The love I have always felt, the hugs I was always given, the feeling of being the most important person in the room no matter how many were present. The nightly prayers for me and my family thru the years. How can I possibly put into words ... I will miss my Uncle dearly. He was a beautiful, kind, loving and full of life man. He must have paid a fortune in chewing gum to keep in his front pocket for all of us kids. I will miss him so much... I can say that all of my memories are happy ones. I will see him again one day. Thank you Jesus.
