The Mitchell family annual cousins reunion, with its (10+) years span, would not have existed without cousin Pam's input and organization, even donating her own home for a few occasions. When Pam walked into a room, you knew it for she had a huge personality combined with her parents good looks, charm and charisma that left a lasting impression on everyone she encountered. She and Larry were always a hit at the party, both as guests and or hosting and making a point to include you in everything. They will be dearly missed. I write this with heavy heart, saddened by how the final years ended for her. A toast to Pam, for everything she stood for. Also a special praise for all of the loving care-givers with her in her final days. My condolences to Pam's family during this very sad time. Loved and deeply missed—PEACE— "GO SOONERS"Randy Johnson

Dear Shari and Shani: So sorry for the loss of your mother. It is with a heavy heart that I write remembering what a truly wonderful human being she was. I can honestly say that I never heard anyone say anything derogatory about your mom...that's because there wasn't anything bad to say about her. Everyone I knew held her in the highest regard. When I think of Pam two words come to mind, gracious and caring. What a jewel. Due to unfortunate circumstances, we're not able to be there in person though we had good intentions. However, we'll be with you in thought, prayer and spirit this morning as family and friends will grieve her passing. May you be able to find comfort in loving memories and knowing she is in good hands. Love, Joyce Drummond
