So sorry for your loss. Winnie was a great person—I am privileged to have known her. She was hands down the smartest and hardest working woman I have known. Mike and I were out of town for her service, we apologize for missing it. I know each family member will miss her terribly; but I am so glad that the little ones got to know her for awhile... If you told anyone of her accomplishments and energy they would say you exaggerated terribly,,,one had to know and observe her, to believe that a package that tiny could do all she did. Her family was her love and life's work. Love you all, Lotsee

Was very sorry to hear about Winnie. My first job in nursing was working for Winnie and her husband James, at Senior Citizens Nursing Home back in the 70's, they were the ones that inspired me to go to nursing school. Have not seen or talked to Winnie in a couple of years but, she was a wonderful person, always enjoyed talking to her. My prayers are with the family. She will be greatly missed.
