Dear Betty, So sorry to read of Sam's passing. He was a great attorney and a wonderful friend. So many times he helped me with client difficulties and referred many of his clients to me. Many times we would just have general conversations in his office and I rememsber those times fondly. I will never forget him and I am praying for him and for you and all the children. If there is any way I can help you just let me know. With great thanks to Sam and love to you. Bob Rausch

To the family of Sam Roberts,We are Sam's next door neighbors (north) and we love Sam and Betty. Sam called my husband "Speedy" and they got along great. He was a very sweet man who had such a strong will to live despite his illnesses. We know that Sam is looking down from heaven and telling all of us to be happy because his health is fully restored now and he is full of joy. Thank God for giving us such a wonderful place to spend eternity. Our thoughts and prayers are with Betty and the family. Sam, we will miss you but will see you again someday.Respectfully and lovingly,Tom (Speedy) and Deana Wright
