I was so saddened to hear of the passing of such a beautiful, full of life person. I will always and forever remember the "Katie" who I shared happy, fun loving memories with for many years. Our working days at Hilti bring back memories of pierced ears in the bathroom with a potato and sewing machine needle and Katie saying, it won't hurt a bit. Right! Bowling nights and hard hats, running through barricades after a Hilti party. A beautiful angel has been taken from us too soon but a glorious reunion with loved ones and total peace will be yours. You will be missed "Katie". My condolences to all who love you and always will. Joni Watson Hardy

My Dear Friend and Neighbor of so many years, it is hard to say goodbye and you will so be missed. The time we shared looking at the new "bling" that just arrived, chatting about kids, weddings, and all the times we laughed! So many memories. You were the only person I ever knew that went to the mailbox with hair, nails, and make-up in perfect order. Love you my friend. Miss your laugh, your smile and your "Hi Honey"! Nancy

I never thought I'd be signing this guest book for you this soon. To a wonderful lady, very special mother-in-law, and my second mom for so many years. I pray that peace has found you. I will think of you whenever I hear "Hi Honey", and I will smile. Hug Chick, Ruth, and Tom for me. I love you. Kelly

It's hard to say goodbye to someone you've known for over 30 years. Especially someone who was your second mother for most of those years. I will always remember your smile, and you always saying "Hi Honey" to everyone whose path you crossed. You were loved more than you'll ever know, and you will be greatly missed. I hope that peace has found you now. Love to you, Chick, Ruth & Tom. Your family is whole again in heaven. Love, Kelly
