I had the honor of meeting David when Tami & David came to visit New Jersey. I can honestly say that David renewed my faith in mankind. Absolutely a gentleman, and I loved seeing that sparkle in both of their eyes. Wonderful to witness love like that! David taught us all to appreciate the simple things. Wish I could be there to lay a rose for you David, but I will play that here for you instead. RIP, dear friend. God Speed.

Let me start by saying that Dave is my baby brother. When we heard the news of the stroke and subsequent cause of the stroke, I was floored as was my husband, children and most especially my parents. My husband, Tim and I, along with my parents knew that we wanted to go to Oklahoma to say goodbye and we had an opportunity to do that. I am forever grateful to Tami for calling us to tell us to come sooner. Dave was a fiercely loyal to his family and friends and he always said that "he would not fail them" and he didn't. I will miss him greatly, but I know in the depths of my soul that I will see him again. His loving sister, Deb
