Dona Conchita is the nicest, beautiful, funniest person I know she was very lovable towards everyone and taught me many things about life, she was there when I needed her since i have no family in this state she use to tell me that I will always have her. Everyone in the Mondragon family and others loved her very much basically there was nothing that you could not love about her. just by meeting her she would make your heart melt with her love and sweetness, I wish god would not have taken her away but I know she was in pain and she does not deserve to be in pain. I love you conchita and all the family as well she is now in heaven looking down at us guarding us and protecting us against evil.
