My husband and I met Terry when we started skydiving in Houston back in 2002. What a great guy. What a CHARACTER. We moved from Texas in 2005 but never forgot Terry. We have always hoped to cross paths with him again. Today we saw the full page tribute to Terry in "Parachutist" magazine. Our hearts are broken.

I remember growing up with Terry and his siblings Mike and Teresa at Epworth Methodist Church. He was always enthusiastic about life. I had lost touch with Terry but ran into him a few years ago. He was so excited about his skydiving work and really tried to talk me into a jump (although not successfully)! He will definitely be missed and we will keep all of the family in our thoughts and prayers.
