T. Carson Hagood

JAN 4, 1926 - JAN 21, 2012

T Carson Hagood, 86, passed from this life to be with the Lord on January 21, 2012 in Claremore, Oklahoma. Carson was born on January 4, 1926 in Hannibal, Missouri to Henry and Ethel Hagood. He was a retired Sears Roebuck salesman and a member of the Eastland Assembly of God Church. He was very active in the church. After retirement, he became an avid gardener. He was the owner of Park Hills Motel in Vinita, OK. He enjoyed reading and studying nutrition as well as, taking senior classes at TCC. Carson loved hunting and fishing all over the country, loved music and most of all his family. Carson met and married Velma Wescott on February 29, 1952 in Sapulpa, Oklahoma. They shared 59, almost 60, memorable years together. He is survived by his loving wife, Velma Hagood; children, Carlene Gulizio and husband, Mike and Baaron Hagood and wife, Sherrie; grandchildren, Michelle Hackett and husband, Austin, Jennifer Hagood Rahimi and husband, Cris, Lesleigh Dexter and husband, Clark, and Matthew Hagood and wife, Callie; great grandchildren, Franklin Rahimi, Kaleb Dexter, Kaydee Dexter, and Carson Hackett; sisters, Doris Shipman and Mima Horton and husband, Glen; and sister-in-law, Betty Hagood. He is preceded in death by his parents and five brothers.

I have fond memories of going to their house when Carlene and I were best friends in Junior High school and trying out different types of wild game that Mr. Hagood and Baaron had shot on one of their hunting trips. That was quite an experience for a young teenager that was a picky eater at the time, lol! He worked at Sears at the same time my grandmother did and can remember my family stopping by to visit with him on the way to see my granny Hales. The carpet department where he worked was right at the top of the escalator and he was always standing there cheerfully greeting you when you stepped off the escalator. He always made you feel welcomed no matter where you were and took very caring interest in each person he met. I know his family will miss him deeply. So good to know where he is at and that he is probably having the best time with Jesus right now. God bless his family. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Kathy Hales Wright

Sorry to hear about Carson and know that you will miss him but remember all of the memories that you shared. It has been several years since I last saw the Hagoods in Branson. But remember Carson as a fun person who enjoyed life. Sympathy from the George Dunbar family from Missouri is sent to each of you.

I want to express my deepest sympathies in the loss of this great man. When I met Mr. Hagood, back in the 60's, he was the pillar of strength and ethics, a true leader and role model. His dedication to his family was wonderful. Baaron and Carlene followed in their father's footsteps with their love of life and family. I was very fortunate to have known Mr. Hagood and he influenced my life in a very positive way. All my love to Mrs. Hagood, Baaron and Carlene.

It seems so unfair that death should hold the power over us to take someone away that you love. Even though many of us have a strong faith, it doesn't make it any easier to think that we won't be able to talk and laugh with and hug this person. The Bible holds out a hope for us that I personally have found to be a comfort. I especially love the scripture found at John 5:28,29 that says, " Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." Jesus promises that millions now dead will again live on this earth, and have the prospect of remaining on it forever under peaceful conditions. Most have all prayed for that time when they say the Lords prayer, "Our Father in Heaven let your Kingdom come ....also upon the EARTH....." I find that to be so comforting, and I hope your family does as well. I hope that during this difficult time you can rely on God, who can give us the "power beyond what is normal"(2 Corinth 4:7) just to get through from one day to the next. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this time.

We regret that we cannot attend the funeral, however we want to share what a wonderful daughter the Hagoods have in Carlene. She & Michael are great friends of ours and even though we never had the pleasure of knowing Mr & Mrs. Hagood, I know they are wonderful Christian people.

So sorry to hear of Carson's recent passing. We were just speaking of getting back up to the Veterans Center to play dominoes or checkers with him the next time we were able. We do have the memory of seeing how pleased he was with catching fish when we took him out to their pond...that was fun. Be comforted that he is now celebrating with the Lord he loved so much.
