I miss you more as each day passes Papa. I do my best to remain strong, but after losing my father, my mother, and now my only surviving grandparent – the pain in my heart is so hard to bare. I miss you dearly and would give anything to hug each and every one of you again. The pain never goes away, but with each day I am stronger – and I will NEVER forget you PAPA! I hold every memory close to my heart NEVER to be forgotten. I love and miss you so very much.
