Mrs. Burchfield was such a kind and loving person; I will miss her sweet spirit and gentle encouragement. It is so comforting to know that she is with her savior, enjoying a new body that is free of pain. My husband and sons took care of her yard for the last several years and were blessed to know her. Please know that we offer you our most sincere sympathies.

To the entire family, my heart goes out to you. Barbara is an amazing person. The entire Argue family feel in love with the Burchfield family. Just found out about the funeral mid-morning Thursday (12-29-11) and so sad I could not make it. Growing up, Barbara was a favorite. Barbara was certainly one of mom's favorites and often the life of the party. And we three boys, just put our own mom in a senior home here in Tulsa three days ago. May God richly bless the entire family during this difficult season. The next realm will supercede our brief earthly experiences. We will all be together soon. Blessings !! With sorrow, The Argue family
