I have so much I'd like to tell you. I miss you so much and I know you are in no pain and for that I'm grateful. I don't want to believe you are gone. I know you will always be with me but I want you here, I need you!!

Christy was all about her three children. There was a period she lived on welfare to raise her children and attend college to earn a degree as a Registered Nurse. Her favorite work at St. Francis Hospital was with the babies. She was intelligent and articulate with a wonderful sense of humor. She was beautiful. Christy had a flair for fashion and boldly experimented with hair color and styles. She liked M&Ms except the green ones, liked Tweety bird and loved cats. Christy was a great friend, straight-forward, sensitive, caring, supportive. We first met when she was in the eighth grade and years later she also married into the Wright family. Through the years we kindred spirits became like sisters. I love Christy, miss her terribly and will carry her in my heart always. Rest in peace my dear, dear sister.

Dearest Sister. No longer are you bound by the restrictions, pain, and loneliness you felt at times during your time here on earth. I think of you now in God's hands free to watch over us and go wherever you wish with Tweedy bird at your side. I'm sorry that I didn't say I love you near enough. I pray that you have peace and know that we all love and miss you more than you know. I think the happiest times in my life were when we were children and you had to babysit me in the summertime. Yet I can think of thousands of other fun times we had as well. Sorry as your baby brother I gave you such a hard time at times because you were best of our family even though you used to always tell everybody you were adopted. I look forward to seeing you again when my time comes and we can both reminisce on what we liked best. Perhaps we can be cats. Until then know that I see your loving spirit in the blue sky above me and I feel your presence in the wind that blows upon my face. Fly high sweet angel and thank you for being my big sister.

You will always be in my heart. Not a day or minute goes by that I don't think about you! I find myself looking at my phone to see if you have called, thinking of things and photos I want to share with you a that's when it is the hardest. I love you so much and though I know you were in pain and suffering, my heart hurts so much.
