Flowd was a wonderful man and he made Nancy Mae very happy during the last years of her life. I'm blessed to have known him.

I treasure the wonderful childhood memories of going to grandpa's farm, watching him hang wallpaper and thinking he seemed so tall to be able to do that, knowing he always had a cup of coffee, cigarettes and a bowl of old-fashioned hard candy sitting beside his chair....I know he two-stepped again all the way up to Heaven's Gate....Love you always Grandpa!
