My dear husband the following are a few paragraphs from a message I found from you right before your passing. I would love to write it all but there just isn't room here."When tomorrow comes without me. and I'm not there to see you, If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me; While thinking of the many things, WE didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too; But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand, That an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand, And said my place was ready, for heaven far above, and that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love. So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart."I know the angel had been with you your whole life and my proof was the vision I had of Pope John Paul, he was trying to tell me everything was going to be OK and my prayer that you not be in pain was answered. I Love You

What made me Google his name just now? Even though it's been over 40 years, Wally was still my "big brother" cousin. So sorry.

Dear Family, My sisters and I just learned of yours and our loss. Please accept our deepest apologies for not attending the funeral. We surely would have, had we known. Our families seem to have grown apart but relatives are forever. We wanted you to know that we will miss Wally and feel terrible about his death. Keep the faith. Debbie

Wally- I came to know you as my next door neighbor during the twilight of your life. You always had a story of bygone years which you often followed up with a sarcastic, crass comment. ?? I never felt a stranger here, and I thank you for that. Your love for your family was honorable, your kindness was apparent to those who knew you, and the readiness with which you reached out to animals in need was memeorable. John and I will watch over things in your transition. You were a trooper, old man. You won't be forgotten.Your neighbor till I pass as well,~Marc

To Walley's family we send our sincere sympathy. It has been a great pleasure to have known Walley all these years mostly by telephone. he was always so nice to visit with and helped us every way possible in our tire business. He will certainly be missed by us as well as our son Victor who always referred to him as ' By Golly It's Walley.' God be with you and yours. Tom and Eileen Borland Stillwater. Oklahoma

Wally was my oldest brother.one memory that I have was of him taking me to a campfire father and daughter dinner. I'm sure it was uncomfortable for him. He did his best. I remember him taking me home from school when I was afraid to walk home from middle school which was in downtown Tulsa. I would walk to U Needum tire and then he would take me home in his cool little truck. I know he loved his wife and sons. The last time I saw him he showed me his grandson with much pride. I know he had a very loving wife. God Bless Reesa,John and Justin I'm so very sorry for your loss and pain. Love, Paula Wood

Here's to the 'little boy with the big brown eyes' who was cherished so by his Aunt Wanda. Here's to my little brother who waited at the screen door for me to come home from school, calling out 'Shassa' until I got there. Here's to the man who walked his baby sister down the aisle. Here's to the man who chose well whom to marry. Here's to the man who knew that 'it is good to work with your own hands'. Here's to the man who raised two fine sons and to the grandson who was 'Little Jack Rabbit' to his 'Big Jack Rabbit'. Here's to my brother Wally who is present with The Lord. Until we meet again, Love, Venessa
