James Scott King

MAR 6, 1975 - JUN 26, 2011

James Scott King, age 36, of Bixby, Okla., passed away on Sunday, June 26 from injuries sustained in an automobile accident. Scott was born March 6, 1975 in Tulsa to Ron and Mavis King. A graduate of Jenks High School in 1993, Scott attended Oklahoma Christian University on a soccer scholarship. In 1995, he discovered his passion for electrical work, a career also shared by his grandfather. After 15 years as an industrial electrician, he earned his electrical contractors license and opened his own company, JSK Power & Electric, in 2010. Scott married Elizabeth (Meier) King on February 15, 2003 at St. Clements's Church in Bixby, Okla. They met by chance under a full moon in October 2001 at a work function hosted by his father. They were together from that day forward. In 2006, Scott and Elizabeth welcomed their first child, Olivia, followed shortly by their son, Jameson, in 2007. Proud of his Osage heritage, Scott also was given the name Che-sho-ki-he-kah, which means Chief of the Golden Eagle Clan. With his charismatic personality, Scott was a born leader who approached life on his terms. He was a devoted husband, father and son, an avid hunter and fisherman, and a die-hard Oklahoma State fan. Scott is survived by his wife, Elizabeth; children, Olivia and Jameson; parents, Ron and Jan King and Mavis King; parents-in-laws, Greg and Pat Meier; grandparents, Frank and Pauline King; siblings, Sydney and Chad Noel, Courtney Moore, Gil Meier and John Meier; nephew, Chase Noel; and many aunts, uncles and cousins. He is preceded in death by grandparents, Jim and Betty Ham; and sister, Ronna King. The funeral service is Friday, July 1, 10 a.m., at Floral Haven Chapel, 6500 S. 129th E. Ave. in Broken Arrow. Respects may be paid Thursday, June 30 anytime between 12-7 p.m. at Floral Haven. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Olivia and Jameson King Education Fund. To make a donation, contact Mid-First Bank at 71st and Yale, Tulsa. Life's journey is not to arrive at the grave safely, in a well

I want to express my deepest sympathies to the King family. Scott was a wonderful man and he departed this world according to God's time, but far too soon for us. I attended his sister Ronna's service, and I didn't get a chance to say hello to the King family face-to-face. At the time, I thought it best to pay my respects and go, as there were so many people there and I thought they might be overwhelmed. I regret that decision with all of my heart. I'm so sad that I will never have the chance to tell Scott how much I adored him and his sister. I only read of his passing today, and I am disappointed that I was unable to attend his service this morning. I had the opportunity to meet Elizabeth at the service of Cisco Chaffin, a close friend of Scott's. I am so happy for Scott that he met such a sweet lady to share his life with. I am so terribly sorry for your loss. As the mother of two small children, I cannot begin to understand how it would feel to lose my husband and their daddy. On a happy note, I know that Scott knew his Lord and Savior, and I take comfort in knowing he is Home. I hope you can find comfort in that as well. I pray that you find blessings and peace, and that you are held by the promise of God that we will see Scott again. Much Love, Jennie (Lynn) Holder

Ron, Mavis, Jan & Elizabeth! Our hearts are heavy for each of you & in a way that words can't describe. Your incalculable losses bring tears to our eyes and an overwhelming sense of compassion for what you have to deal with. Kind words of sympathy seem so inadequate, and we don't know what to say that would bring any real comfort at a time like this. We struggle with the whys of such tragedy, and with how much of a burden any one person can bare. But, know that you all are in our thoughts and prayers & will continue to be there long into the future. If there is ever anything we can do to support you in your grief, just let us know. It's hard to imagine now, but somewhere down the road, all those great memories and experiences that you shared with Scott will be there to sustain and comfort you. I wish we knew the right words to provide you any real comfort, but our silent prayers will have to do for now!

Hopi Prayer for the Soul
Do not stand at my grave and weep I am not there, I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond glints on snow. I am the sunlight On the ripened grain. I am the gentle Autumn's rain. When you awaken in the morning hush, I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry. I am not there. I did not die. My Spirit is still alive..Through Phillip, I had the pleasure of meeting Scott. For the few months that I knew him and the times he stopped by our house, he had a presence about him that stayed long after he had left. Elizabeth and Scott were a dynamic and loving couple – my heart and soul goes out to the entire family. May the Holy Spirit provide you with peace and comfort for the hard days, months and years ahead...in my prayers always
Genuinely, Shantana
