Mama, we miss you every single day that goes by and like Robin said, there is always something that reminds us of you even though you are always in our thoughts. I think that you would be proud of how we have all held things together and are trying to go on. Until we are all together again we will miss and think about you every single day. Love you!

It was wonderful knowing you and having you for a friend. It's not goodbye forever, just for a little while. I will always remember your sweet smile. You were very strong during this battle, and you gave me so much encouragement. I will see you again some day.
