The only memories I have of this sweet lady are the ones her granddaughter Jacki Snider has shared with me. Jacki loves her so much and always made me laugh with stories of her grandmother's antics. I felt I knew her...and in a way I did. So I mourn her passing as I feel joy for her life that was and her life that now is. And I send love to all her knew her personally—especially my sweet friend Jacki.

I'm so thankful for the wonderful memories you and I made together, grandma. The world won't be as good a place, now that you're gone – but Heaven sure will be a hoot with you in it! Love you more!
