Mildred Harriet Stewart

APR 12, 1917 - JAN 2, 2011

Mildred Harriet Dyer Stewart, 93, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, passed away January 2, 2011, at the Clarehouse end of life care center, where she has been a resident for a week. Mrs. Stewart was born on April 12, 1917, in rural Stewartsville, Missouri, to Jonathan Edward and Mabel Paddock Dyer. She graduated from Amity High School, Amity, MO, and earned BA degree from Baker University in Baldwin, Kansas. She became a Christian at an early age and was a long-time member of Victory Christian Center in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Mrs. Stewart was a school teacher in rural Missouri and Baldwin, Kansas until her marriage to Wilton T. Stewart on June 11, 1944. After Wilton's retirement, they moved to Missouri to assist in the care of Mildred's parents on the farm in Amity. Mrs. Stewart was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, her brother, J. Willard Dyer, her sister, Ruth Dyer Hough, and her son W. Terry Stewart. She is survived by her son, Mark and wife, Theresa Stewart; her daughter, Carol and husband, Steve Diebel of Boulder, Colorado; her son Greg and wife, Terrie Stewart of Granada Hills, California and Terry's wife, Margo Stewart of Claremore, Oklahoma. She is further survived by four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. A celebration of Life will be held on Thursday, 11:00 AM, January 6, 2011 at the Amity United Methodist Church, 4101 Church Street, Amity, MO 64422, Tel: 816) 449-5440. Interment will follow at the Amity Cemetery, a quarter mile North of the Amity United Methodist Church. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to Clarehouse, end of life care center, 7617 S. Mingo Road, Tulsa OK 74133, www.clarehouse.org.

Mildred was a dear friend for 30 years. She loved Jesus and showed his love to everyone. She chose to see the best in others and in every situation. One of her favorite sayings was, "There is so much that is so good." Now she is in the very presence of Goodness, Himself. When I think of Mildred, I think of a life well lived.
