Roy had a great sense of humor and was always an interesting person to talk to. He and Genevieve were liked and loved by many. I will always remember how helpful he was around the American Legion Post 1 and especially all he did for the DUCKS. A good man has passed from this world into God's hands. His children and grandchildren are very blessed with having had such a nice, good person as their father and grandfather. May God's peace rest within your heart because of the person that Roy was. Love to all the family. Sharon
