Grandma- words cant express how selfish I want to be and how I can wish all day long on how much I missed and what I could have done different. But at the end of the day and through all of our crazy lifes I know that you are happy and cancer free. I am sure you have given Brucey and ear full. And I know your enjoying all the missed time with your mom and dad. The last thing you said to me was that you always loved me. Grandma, I always loved you more than you will ever know. Being the oldest grand daughter we defintely had our ups and downs. But I looked up to you, your strength is amazing! Christmas was hard this year, mom and Nana kept it together. Dont worry about papa Sonny, us kids are taking good care of him like you would want us too. I miss you every day but I know you are healed with no pain. I love you Grandma

Grandma- I miss you so much! I think about you everyday. I picture you in heaven cruising on a gorgeous boat in clear waters! Smiling because you are now not in any pain. You were a wonderful woman. And you taught me so much. I will keep everything u taught me and all our memories forever and close to my heart. If I could get one more minute with you, I do anything for it! I miss you dearly but I know you are happy and I know you will be with me as I walk down the aisle. I know you loved Drew and were very excited. It's selfish to want you here. Tell Jesus hi and I'm so glad your in a happy place and cancer free. I love you so much grandma! Xoxo -Aubrey Sydney was my best friend when I was a young teenager. When I think of good memories that always includes Sydney, Robbin and Radonna....those memories include Sydney's beloved mustang, camping at the lake, or wherever, playing lots of card games, decorating for Christmas and taking the girls through they're first car wash.I love you Sydney, Robbin & Radonna.

For those who were unable to make it to the service or those asking, here is the poem I read!!! If I Were Santalf I were Santa you know what I'd do I'd dump all the silly gifts given to you and deliver some things just inside your front door Things you have lost but treasured before.I'd bring back the shape with which you were gifted So things now suspended need not uplifted. Then restore the color that once graced your hair Before all the rinses and bleaches took residence there.I'd remove all your wrinkles and leave only one chin So you wouldn't spend hours rubbing grease on your skin. No sore aching feet, no corns on your toes No searching for spectacles right on your nose.Not a shot would you take in your arm or your hip Just think of all the doctors' appointments you could skip You'd never have headaches No pill would you take.Yes if were Santa you'd never have pain I would make all your symptoms just go away And when the angels called I'd put you in my sleigh, take you to heaven Seeing Christmas lights all the way.But even though I'm not Santa I can tell those you love You had a wonderful life and Merry Christmas from Sydney above.Author unknown Revised and edited by Robbin Keith For my mother December 10,2010

Sonny, I am so sad to hear about Sydney's death. Your sorrow must be overwhelming right now. You will be lifted up to God in prayer for peace and strength. Apparently Sydney was a woman of great faith and as such is now enjoying her wonderful life ever after. Like Kay and Judy, I have fond memories of her from my childhood. The transience of all of our lives has sadly kept up from knowing one another as adults. Take care and know you are in my prayers. Much love, Becky

I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Sydney. I have so many wonderful childhood memories from spending time on the front porch swing to taking a bath in the wash tub on her back porch. I loved doing those things with her. Because of the miles between us, we have missed having an adult relationship, but the wonderful memories with both of you will always be cherished in my heart. I will keep you in my prayers for strength in the coming days as I know it is a great loss for you.

A friend shared this poem with me. So I'm sharing it with you. I see the countless Christmas trees Around the world below. With tiny lights, like heaven's stars reflecting in the snow. The sight is so spectacular. Please wipe away that tear, for I am spending Christmas with Jesus this year. I see the many Christmas trees that people hold so dear. But the sounds of music can't compare with the Christmas choir up here. For I have no words to tell you the joy their voices bring. For it is beyond description to hear the angels sing. I know how much you miss me, I see the pain inside your heart, for I am spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year. I can't tell you of the splendor or the peace here in this place, can you just imagine Christmas with our Savior, face to face? I'll ask Him to lift your spirit as I tell Him of your love. So then pray for one another as you lift your eyes above. So please let your hearts be joyful and let your spirit sing, for I am spending Christmas in Heaven and I am walking with the King. By Wanda Benke for we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk with them. ~ Ephesians 2:10

I am so sorry that Sydney has left us. However, I know that she now resides with Jesus Christ our Savior. She is now spending her first Christmas with the One who made it all possible! She is also with many of our loved ones who have gone before us including my beloved grandson Joshua Levi Campbell who went to be with Jesus April 11, 2010. They are celebrating the best Christmas ever! While it is so very difficult for all of us left behind, I am so very happy for them. They are walking, talking, playing, and enjoying Christ! May we always remember Sydney and love she gave to us all. I love you Sydney. I'll see you in heaven one day. Love, Mary Jane

I wanted to let you know how much I loved Sydney. She was always so full of life and fun. We had such a good time together going to the Tulsa Zoo, the Aquarium, eating ice cream. Going out on your boats and Kayaking for the first time. Her zest for life and love of decorating for Christmas, her home and the boat with lights and Christmas trees. How she loved watching the birds on the deck and going out there to read. She took such good care of you Sonny and loved you so very much. And I know you loved her and took good care of her. You two had such a wonderful marriage, full of love and respect. She adored you Sonny. As a child, Sydney loved going fishing with her Dad and she loved going fishing with you, Sonny and her family. She loved getting out on the water and she loved working in her yard. She made everything so very special and she made everyone feel special. She loved her girls Robin and Ladonna and her grandchildren. And loved showing us pictures of them and their families. She accepted her step-children and wanted them to be part of their life together. She loved me and I am so thankful for that love that she showed to me and to my husband, Tom. Right now I know she is looking down at us from Heaven and saying don't cry, "I no longer hurt, and Glory be to God I am here with my parents and all the Saints. And God's glory is all around me."

Sydney, we were so saddened to hear of your death. Your life and love were apparent in each smile and our visits in your home with Sonny. Your courage and conversations with us over the past several years showed your great faith in our Lord. Your love for us and your family will be a part of our memories forever. May the Lord bless you and continue to bless Sonny and all the family and friends at this time. John 17:24 "Father, I want those you have given me to be with me where I am, and to see my glory, the glory you have given me because you loved me before the creation of the world." Love, Tom
