Had the privledge of attending a beautiful service for a beautiful lady today. What a very specail lady she was, always smiling, always so friendly, she was one in a million. Our neighborhood and circle of friends will not be the same without her. She may be gone from this earth but not from our hearts. We were blessed to have known her and have many precious memories that we will always cherish. Enjoy the blessings of heaven Shirlee and one day we will see you again.

As I sit here in Dallas in my office I looked at the clock and saw it was now 3:10pm and your sesrvices had just started. How badly I wish I was there but know I am thinking of your family, friends and loved ones and have them in my prayers. This is still so hard to believe, you will be missed so much by all – you were a very loved lady by all. My God comfort you loved ones as I cannot imagine what they are going through right now, you were the root that held that family tree together. May you watch over us from Heaven above and be our Guardian Angel always. Until we see you again, thank you for all your unconditional love, friendship, guidance, advise and all you brought to our lives. We love you Shirley and will miss you!
