I have known Gary since we were six, his grandmother lived across the street from mine. He was so sweet and kind to me, he taught me how to roller skate, he was so good at it, he held my hand so I would not fall down. He bought me a fudge bar with his own allowance. He was so much like a big brother to me for many years. I loved his jokes and funny ways to make us all laugh. Always the generous and loyal friend. He was there for me when my grandmother and my grandfather passed away with love and hugs. Wish I could give him a hug and tell him he was loved by me, but I think he knows. Thanks for the fun and the friendship Gary. What a kind heart and sweet spirit you have. God loves him and so do I. Your friend forever, Candy Mitchell
