Lil late I guess, but better late than never. It never occurred to me that I should leave a comment on my grandmothers obituary website. God bless the 21st century. I miss my grandma in more ways than I can count, the biggest being her ability to calm me down and give rational, invaluable advice and life lessons. The world is worse off with one less person of her stature and grace around. I miss and love you so much grandma.

DeAnn, I was very sorry and saddened to hear about your mother's passing. I always remember Wanda as quiet, soft and so pretty when we had sleepovers at your house in Jenks and after you moved out to 91st. We always, always shared good laughs and plenty of secrets and I remember your Mom giving us great advice that we should have heeded!!! Please know that we are thinking of you and your sister and brothers. I hope your memories give you comfort and peace and stay in your hearts never fading. Again, very sorry for your loss and if there is anything I can do please don't hesitate. Marcia can reach me. Shirley
