Madeline Hutton

OCT 18, 1951 - DEC 21, 2004

Madeline Hutton, 53, of Tulsa, Oklahoma left this life on December 21, 2004. Madeline was born October 18, 1951 in Toronto, Ontario, Canada to Anthony and Margaret (DeCeanio) Tambureno. She and Mark met at work in 1978. Madeline soon learned that the quickest way to Mark's heart was through his stomach. She chose to put her career on hold, so that she and Mark could travel the country with his job. They settled in Tulsa in 1996, where Madeline began working for Hillcrest Hospital in the Medical Records Department. This was one of her favorite jobs. Madeline was a very detailed housekeeper. She hated to have a dirty house and spent much of her time cleaning and taking care of the home for her and Mark. Home was the most important thing in her life, after Mark of course. She was very outgoing and made friends easily where ever she went. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her. Memorial services were held at 12:30 P.M. Thursday, December 23, 2004, Floral Haven Funeral Home Chapel, Broken Arrow, Oklahoma. Memorial donations can be made to the American Cancer Society, in Madeline's name. Survived By: her loving husband, Mark; mother, Margaret Tambureno of Toronto; brother, Anthony Tambureno of Toronto; sister, Gene Gaul of Witbey, Ontario; nephew, John Krilenko, of Hamilton, Ontario; numerous nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, family members and friends.
