I just finished reading my Jan 2007 issue of Wired and thought of you guys. It's an issue devoted to The Science of Human Enhancement and there's an article on Dean Karnazes and his 12 secrets to his success. Yeah, it's a tech mag but this issue was devoted to el cuerpo humano. I know it's 12:55am but I'm at work and this is what I'm doing while waiting for a really late flight, reading. Still got over an hour to wait, guess I'll watch TV now

My grandma loved him so much. She talked about him all the time. Her baby brother is how she referred to him. I remember the family reunion in Branson. I was so glad everyone could get together and meet. We get so spread out and lose touch with family. I am very sorry for your loss. My grandma's sister passed away almost 2 years ago. There is not a day that goes by that I don't think of her. I know they are all 3 in heaven together again and happy watching over us.

I didn't know the father; knew the son, briefly, long time ago in NOLA. Sweet young man, though.
