I work out of town and wouldn't go in often. When I did he'd go around the store loading me up saying don't worry you won't pay full price. Many memories! ❤️😊

My deepest sympathies to the Bhojwani family. David was a light to all who knew him. I worked with David as one of his vendors. When we spoke David always made me laugh with his stories. Through the years he shared his wisdom , his laughter and kindness. He was a co worker then became a friend and was a beautiful soul. I will miss David. Another light has gone out.Carol Brazeau

My heart is heavy with the loss of my friend. David taught me a lot about business, friendship and character, he was the kind of person who loved everyone. There was no judgement, no ridicule, he was a true friend and constant joker. I will never forget the day he asked me if he could hire me to separate the hangers one inch apart on all the displays in the Old Pinpoint. He literally built that from the ground up from almost nothing, to its crowning jewel today. I was honored to be there to help him do so. He was a successful businessman, faithful son and brother, and a man who loved his daughter dearly, an all around great friend! You will be greatly missed David! We will always remember your silly laugh and crazy antics. RIP my friend. Condolences to his beautiful Erica and his parents and family.
