his barbeque and carrot cake. He loved to share recipes, but kept his secret sauces to himself. Mark enjoyed enhancing and spending time in his man cave. He especially enjoyed playing darts with his friends. Mark was friendly and inviting to anyone that met his acquaintance. He shared joy and laughter and loved to see his family and friends have a wonderful time. Through his example, Mark taught all of us patience daily. To know Mark was to love Mark. His spirit will remain with us, and his presence will be greatly missed.

Quote:

“Remember me with smiles and laughter, for that is how I will remember you all. If you can only remember me with tears, then don’t remember me at all.” (Episode from Little House on the Prairie.)

I remember Mark from the widow and widower work shop. He was a strong, caring man and always had ready smile. I appreciate Mark's kindness towards me during a difficult time. I am sorry I am unable to attend his Memorial Service as I live in Utah. Prayerful thoughts to Marie and all his extended family.

I was ex kin to Marks first wife. Sheer and I remained friends through the years and I met Mark when I visited Sheery years ago. Then when Sheer passed away, I again was with them. Mark was a wonderful person. I knew he met and married and I lost touch with him. Mark was a very caring, kind, and loving person. I just found out of his passing and shocked to hear this. I am so sorry. Marie, I never go the chance to meet you but my prayers go out to you.

I first met Mark at a widow-widowers support group. He was a quiet and reserved man. One thing I observed about Mark was that he always had his son with him at the group activities. I found that to be very admirable. I did not truly realize he was "sweet" on Marie until after Rory and I had exited the group. But, I did see them together at later gatherings and found them to be such a cute couple who looked to be truly in love. Rory and I are grateful that we both had the opportunity to meet Mark and to experience he and Marie together as a couple. He will truly be missed, especially for his dry sense of humor, and his kind and gentle ways that he showed he was a true man of God. I know that he is rejoicing in his new life in Heaven and we will all meet again when God calls the rest of us Home. Barb and Rory Scruggs
