Clara Galindo

AUG 12, 1950 - APR 9, 2020

Clara, Mom, NaNa, Sis and Honey was born in Yakima Washington on August 12, to Richard and Emily Gomez. Clara is number 5 of the 12 Gomez kids. Growing up as one of the middle kids had its challenges as she learned to be a lil mama and get the younger siblings to clean, especially the bathroom! A task she has carried on to her own kids. Steve and Clara met under the Apple Blossoms and soon fell in love. They were married in December 1968. Mom enjoyed gardening, sewing, canning and especially being with her grandchildren. Clara is survived by her husband of 51 years Steve, son, Jerome and his wife, Jeannie and daughters, Michelle and her husband, James Frazee and Christina Galindo along with 13 grandchildren, Nicole and her husband, Tony, Paige, Sarah, John, Josh, Reagan, Jessica, Caleb, Samuel, Jack, Nathan, Benjamin and Grace.

My deepest condolences to my GALINDO family. I moved at a very young age from Yakima but what i do recall from Aunt Clara is how she always like us lil cousins to hang out. We played outside, we danced and we made a mess. It enlightened her to see us play together. An angel is up in heaven accompanying grandma and i bet they are chatting up a storm. Rest in peace tia Clara. Josie Maldonado Galindo..lindo's daughter

Thanks Josie, I remember playing outside and having lots of fun. Mom was always happy to hear updates about you. God Bless! Your cousin Michelle (Galindo) Frazee
